Dakota Radio Information Service (DRIS)

Dakota Radio Information Service (DRIS)

DRIS is a radio broadcast for persons with visual impairments. This broadcast is available 24 hours a day for persons living in the western two-thirds of North Dakota. DRIS began broadcasting March 5, 1984, in Bismarck and has expanded to Minot, Williston, Dickinson, Jamestown, Valley City, and their surrounding areas. The local news is read live each weekday and is repeated in the evening.
